The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) of the IQAC

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013)

Appendix-i

1) Title of the practice : Girls Hostel Facility

2) Goal :

> Our mission is to provide higher education to the students from backward area especially for girls. We have designed some plans to proceed further our mission. Initially we have started hostel facility in rented rooms with few girls, which creates question of security. We visited personally to convince the girls and parents to take admission of the girls in hostel.

3) The Context :

> The girls and parents are convinced and assured security by taking each and every possible case of them. In spite of regular teaching in the college, we have started add-on courses, skill courses without any charge.

4) The Practice :

> Excursion, cultural and extra-curricular activities helped to increase the number of students. The important feature of the hostel is we adopt some girls for completion of their education and try to fulfill their needs. Dropout rate may be due to economic backgrounds of the parents, parents are not ready to send their girls in hostel and security for the girls. To protect girls we take help of various committees, the dignitaries in the Gunjoti, parents and management of the college.

5) Evidence of success :

> We started hostel facility in rented rooms for few girls initially, now we have a separate girls hostel building with accommodation of 30 girls, constructed from funds received from UGC. Most of the girls have completed their PG courses and working at various places, it is observed that enrollment and attendance of the girl's students as compare to boy's students is increasing. The exposure through cultural activities, freedom and security shape their personality.

22

6) Problems encountered and Resources Required.

- o Being a challengeable task to run the hostel under meager finances staff of the college contributes as and when required.
- o Poor economic condition of girl's student.
- o Scarcity of funds for maintenance of hostel buildings.
